

Dear God,

As I look at my life, it is difficult to see your plan. I see failures and imperfections. I see paths that I should have taken, and paths that I should have avoided. What I see doesn't look like a perfect plan.

Yet, I know that you have a perfect plan, Father. You have given me this earth. You have given me breath. You have surrounded me with people and opportunities.

Help me to see your plan all around me. Help me to remember that your Son died for me, to release me from sin and death. Fill my heart and mind with this remembrance, as I go about my daily routine. Let it be a pillar for me.

I do not ask to see all things. But, give me a vision for the future that is better than the vision I have had in the past. Help me to take life more slowly, and take opportunities more quickly.

Show me the way to walk in your plan, I pray in Jesus name, Amen.

PRAYER NOTES:

This prayer is part of a small series of prayers for understanding. We often pray to receive a blessing, or to eliminate a trial. These prayers seek greater wisdom and knowledge.

As with all prayers, these are guides. Use them however you feel you ought. Change the wording as needed, to align with your personal feelings toward God.

God is all-powerful, and is capable of hearing any prayer. Pray in your heart or out loud. The manner of your prayer is not as important as your heart. These prayers are written from a Christian perspective. Adjust them as needed to fit your understanding and practice.
